

WATSON OF BURTON-UPON-TRENT, STAFFS

ARMS:*Barry of six argent and gules three crescents 2 & 1 ermine

CREST:

Nether Hall was later acquired by Daniel Watson, a barrister and the son of a Burton tanner. He was living in Burton in 1649, when appointed a J.P. for the county, and he was probably living at Nether Hall by at least 1656: the house he occupied in 1666 (presumably Nether Hall) was one of the largest in Burton, being assessed for tax on eight hearths. An active parliamentarian, M.P. for Lichfield in 1659-60, and recorder of Newcastle-under-Lyme from 1660, Watson died in 1683 and was succeeded by his son Daniel. The younger Daniel died childless in 1702, and Nether Hall passed to his nephew, Thomas Burslem, the son of Daniel's sister Dorothy and William Burslem, M.P. for Newcastle-under-Lyme. In 1716 Thomas, and his father, sold Nether Hall to John, Lord Gower, from whom it passed through intermediaries in 1721 to a Burton maltster, William Wilders. [VCH]
